ABOUT ME

I am a results-driven Packaging Design Specialist and Technologist with a strong background in Tea Technology and Value Addition. Combining technical domain knowledge with structural design expertise, I specialize in engineering production-ready dieline layouts, high-precision packaging structures, and compelling visual branding for the commercial packaging and export industries.

My expertise spans the end-to-end development of diverse packaging formats—including rigid board sets, folding cartons, clear sleeves, and complex structural geometries—ensuring seamless integration between functional engineering, pre-press standards, and premium shelf appeal. Driven by innovation and precision, I leverage data and modern technology to elevate product presentation and deliver impactful design solutions.
